

Sexual Assault Awareness Month Events

Spring 2022

Attend an event and learn how you can support survivors, take action to help your community and be part of the movement to end violence.

April 3

Move for Love
10 a.m.

Lacrosse Field, ASU West campus

Join One Love in honoring the memory of Yeadley Love, learn about the signs of healthy and unhealthy relationships and move! This year, One Love at ASU will recognize Move for Love through a Men's Lacrosse game dedication.

April 4

Understanding Implicit Bias and Violence Prevention
6–7 p.m.

Zoom: links.asu.edu/Bloom365SAAM

Join Bloom365 for an introductory workshop on implicit bias and leave with some tools to address bias within ourselves.

April 5

Reading the Rainbow
4–6 p.m.

Pima Auditorium, ASU Tempe

Join the Rainbow Coalition for a book reading as we explore the unique ways sexual and relationship violence affects the LGBTQIA2S+ community. Meet with Lexie Bean (they/he), a Queer and Trans author who wrote the book The Ship We Built. Join the discussion and potentially win a free book!

April 5

Exploring Consent
6–7 p.m.

Suite 392, Student Services

ASU Tempe campus

Join Devils in the Bedroom and the Sexual and Relationship Violence Prevention Program for a discussion around sexual assault, consent and the resources available to support survivors.

April 6

SDSN Community Circle: Supporting Survivors
4–5 p.m.

Visit @ASUSRVP Instagram

Learn more about how to offer support to victims and survivors of sexual or relationship violence through ASU and community resources.

April 7

Take Back the Night
5–7 p.m. via Zoom
8–10 p.m. at Student Services
ASU Tempe campus

This annual community event is dedicated to educating, empowering, and honoring survivors and allies. The Sexual and Relationship Violence Prevention Program and EMPACT will host a virtual rally from 5–7 p.m. and the ASU's Women's Coalition will host an in-person rally from 8–10 p.m. at the ASU Tempe campus. Register at links.asu.edu/tbtn22.

April 8

Becoming Active Bystanders
10 a.m.–12 p.m.

Plata 210, Memorial Union
ASU Tempe campus

Join the Facilitators for Campus Inclusion for an educational workshop on bystander intervention for Graduate students.

April 12

Understanding Implicit Bias and Violence Prevention
7–8 p.m.

VDP Executive Dining Room
ASU West campus

Join Bloom365, in partnership with One Love at ASU, for an introductory workshop on implicit bias and leave with some tools to address bias within ourselves.

April 13

Consent and Beyond
Tabling Fair

11 a.m.–2 p.m.

Outside of Student Pavilion
ASU Tempe campus

Stop by the Sexual Assault Awareness Month signature event and meet other organizations and individuals who are joining the movement to prevent violence, learn about ASU and community resources and more.

April 13

SDSN Community Circle: Tie-Dyeing and Trust
4–5 p.m.

Visit @ASUSRVP Instagram

Trust is everything. Trusting yourself and your partner(s) is crucial when it comes to healthy relationships. Join us as we tie dye and learn a little bit more about trust.

April 14

Give 'Em Health Devils
3–7 p.m.

SDFC Fields, ASU Tempe campus

Stop by this health and wellness expo and learn more about holistic wellness topics by engaging in activities, demonstrations, and more. Visit with community resources that provide sexual and domestic violence advocacy and support services.

April 15

Sun Devil Support
Network Training
11 a.m.

Register at eoss.asu.edu/sdsn

Become an advisor for the Sun Devil Support Network and learn how to provide peer support to victims and survivors of sexual relationship violence.

April 16

Sexual Assault Awareness
Month 2k Walk

8:30 a.m.

Tempe Town Lake

This event is hosted and self-funded by the founder of Path Matching, a single survivor on a mission to empower other survivors. Participate in a brisk walk, relaxing meditation, empowering yoga session, and more. Register at pathmatching.com

April 18–22

Consent & Beyond Lemonade
Stands

Visit @ASUSRVP Instagram

Join a refreshing glass of lemonade while discussing the importance of cultivating a culture of everyday consent and exploring other ways to get involved in Sexual Assault Awareness Month. Taking place across all ASU campuses.

April 18–27

ASU Denim Day Countdown

Visit @ASUSRVP Instagram

Take part in the annual ASU Denim Day tradition by engaging in our "Denim Day Countdown" by visiting Denim Day tables held across ASU's campuses. Find Denim Day table locations on @ ASUSRVP Instagram.

April 19

Pop Culture Corner:
Asian American and Pacific
Islander Heritage Month

5–6 p.m.

Pinal 227, Memorial Union

ASU Tempe campus

Review media featuring Asian American and Pacific Islander actors and how they're portrayed. Join us as we dive into the context behind the stereotypes that misrepresent and harm this community and discuss opportunities to highlight this community's strengths.

April 20

SDSN Community Circle:
Hooking Up and Hanging Out
4–5 p.m.

Visit @ASUSRVP Instagram

Relationships in college might not look the same for everyone. Collaborate with your peers to determine what a safe, casual relationship looks like and how to know when it is time to leave.

April 27

ASU Denim Day

Visit @ASUSRVP Instagram

Every April, Sun Devils are invited to participate by wearing denim and showing support for victims and survivors of sexual violence. Visit @ASUSRVP Instagram to participate and locate Denim Day table locations.

Events are planned by campus departments and student or community organizations.

For more information and a full list of events, visit:

sexualviolenceprevention.asu.edu/saam

ASU Sexual and Relationship Violence Prevention