

Formal Complaint of Title IX Sexual Harassment

Title IX Sexual Harassment includes the following conduct that occurs in the United States and in an ASU program or activity:

- Sexual assault
- Dating and Domestic Violence
- Stalking
- Severe, Pervasive and Offensive Conduct

BOTH parties have a right to:

- Immediately receive notice of the facts and allegations
- Gather and present evidence to an investigator
- Receive and review all evidence gathered during the investigation
- Receive a copy of the draft investigative report
- Attend a live hearing
- Have an advisor who will cross examine all witnesses
- Appeal a determination

A formal complaint must be filed in writing with your signature. You can submit a formal complaint or request an in-person meeting at TitleIXCoordinator@asu.edu.

ASU has a variety of other reporting and support options available.

To discuss reporting and support options, connect with ASU Advocacy and Assistance deanofstudents@asu.edu 480-965-6547

You do NOT need to file a report or complaint to receive resources.

Report of Sexual Harassment

Student Code of Conduct Sexual Harassment includes the following conduct, no matter where it occurs:

- Sexual violence including non-consensual sexual contact which can lead to discipline for acts occurring outside the United States or an ASU program or activity
- Unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature that is severe or pervasive
- Indecent exposure, exploitation or voyeurism
- Endangering, threatening or causing physical harm

BOTH parties have a right to:

- Gather and present evidence to an investigator
- Receive and review relevant evidence gathered during the investigation
- Have an advisor of their choice
- Appeal a determination of suspension or expulsion

A report of Student Code of Conduct sexual harassment by a student can be filed with the Dean of Students office on any ASU campus or by filing a report online.
