FILE A TITLE IX FORMAL COMPLAINT

Where to file?
You can file your written document with your signature at TitleIXCoordinator@asu.edu or request an appointment with the Title IX Coordinator in person by emailing the above address.

What happens?
You will be contacted to verify your intent to file a Title IX Formal Complaint. The Respondent* is notified of the complaint and each party has the opportunity to provide any information for review. Each party has the right to review any and all documents. There will be a live hearing. Each party has the right to appeal.

What if I only want resources?
Resources are available with or without a Title IX Formal Complaint. For students, please contact STUDENT ADVOCACY AND ASSISTANCE.

CRIMINAL REPORTING PROCESS

Dial 911 in the event of an emergency or call the non-emergency number to report. If the incident occurred on ASU's property, ASU Police will respond. The ASU Police will connect you with a Victim Advocate if requested or depending on the incident being reported

If the event occurred off-campus, connect with the police department in the city where the incident occurred. Depending on the city you are reporting with a victim advocate may be available for support. However, you can still follow-up with the ASU Victim Advocates for additional support and resources.

The investigation may include an interview, witness statements, and evidence collection. You will also be asked if you'd like to have a Medical Forensic Exam done if the incident was reported within a five-day period or 120 hours.

REPORT TO ASU HOTLINE

Anonymous report is sent to appropriate office

Office conducts fact finding investigation

File is closed if no basis is found for complaint

If basis is found for complaint, SRR or URR process is followed depending on affiliation of parties

Updates on submitted hotline reports are available online or by phone

Note: Anonymous reporting will limit the ability for an investigation

Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 protects individuals from discrimination based on sex in any educational program or activity operated by recipients of federal financial assistance. As required by Title IX, ASU does not discriminate on the basis of sex in the education programs or activities that we operate, including in admission and employment. Inquiries concerning the application of Title IX may be referred to the Title IX Coordinator or to the U.S. Department of Education, Assistant Secretary, or both.
