Guide for Student Conduct

Complaint of Title IX Sexual Discrimination

Title IX Sexual Discrimination includes the following conduct that occurs in the United States or impacts an ASU program or activity:

- Sex discrimination
- Sexual assault
- Dating and domestic violence
- Stalking
- Sexual harassment that is severe, pervasive or offensive conduct

BOTH parties have a right to:

- Immediately receive notice of the facts and allegations
- Gather and present evidence to an investigator
- Receive and review all evidence gathered during the investigation
- Attend a live hearing
- Have an advisor who will cross examine all witnesses
- Appeal a determination

A complaint can be initiated after the initial evaluation of a report.

ASU has a variety of other reporting and support options available.
